Twelve Reasons to Support Arts Education

1. The arts develop higher-order thinking skills.
2. The arts can increase cooperation, tolerance of diverse values and viewpoints, and understanding of cultures past and present.
3. The arts enhance the learning environment.
4. The arts integrate basic neurological functions and aid student learning in other subject areas.
5. The arts improve self-esteem.
6. The arts engage a variety of learning styles and offer all children avenues for academic success, including children with disabilities and limited English proficiency.
7. The arts engage students' creativity and increase creative thinking and problem-solving abilities.
8. The arts access a variety of human intelligences.
9. The arts develop skills that prepare students for the work force.
10. The arts contribute to tourism.
11. The arts assist in developing public images in the corporate world.
12. The arts in the schools and community can attract new businesses to the area.

WHY TEACH MUSIC IN OUR SCHOOLS?

MUSIC IS...

... a science, mathematical, a foreign language, history, physical education, language arts, business, and technology.

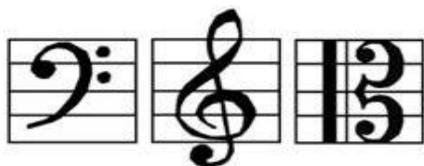

MUSIC IS TAUGHT IN SCHOOLS...

... not because one is expected to major in music, not because one is expected to perform all through life, not so one can relax, and not so one can have fun, but: So one will be human, so one will recognize beauty, so one will be sensitive, so one will be closer to an infinite beyond this world, so one will have more love, more compassion, more gentleness, more good, in short: MORE LIFE.

OF WHAT VALUE WILL IT BE TO MAKE A PROSPEROUS LIVING UNLESS YOU KNOW HOW TO LIVE?

Perform music and meet new friends at the

OCMEA JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL MIXED CHORUS DIRECTOR

Rachel Cornacchio is Associate Professor of Music and Director of Music Education at Messiah College. She teaches courses in curriculum and instruction in the areas of choral and elementary methods. Dr. Cornacchio also supervises student teachers and serves as Conductor of the Messiah College Women's Ensemble. As a public school educator, Ms. Cornacchio served as an elementary general music specialist in Peekskill, NY and director of choral activities at Newburgh Free Academy in Newburgh, NY. While in Newburgh, choirs and soloists under Dr. Cornacchio's direction received top honors at solo and ensemble festivals. Community organizations with which she has worked include the Newburgh Symphonic Chorale and the Oregon Young Women's Choir. Dr. Cornacchio holds a B.M. in Music Education from Nyack College, the M.M. in Choral Conducting and M.M.E. from Florida State University, and the Ph.D. in Music Education from the University of Oregon. Her professional affiliations include the Music Educators National Conference, Pennsylvania Music Educators Association, American Choral Directors Association, and Pi Kappa Lambda. Research papers have been presented at the regional, national, and international levels. She is active as a guest conductor and clinician.

Music is the universal language, which establishes a common bond among all subjects and people. It evokes passionate emotions in the heart and rekindles vibrant memories of the mind. What an enormous impact music has on every aspect of our lives!

OCMEA JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA CONDUCTOR

John E. Bjorkman has been teaching instrumental music in the North Rockland Central School District for over 30 years. Presently, he is the director of the North Rockland High School Symphony, String, and Chamber Orchestras. Under his direction, the orchestras have performed the most difficult Level 6 literature at the NYSSMA Major Organization Festivals, consistently earning the honorable award of Gold with Distinction. John received his Bachelors from the State University of New York at Potsdam, Crane School of Music and a Masters in Music Education from Long Island University. John also holds an MS in Administration from Southern Connecticut State University.

He has been an active member of the Rockland County Music Educators Association, and has served on the faculty at the NYASTA Summer String Institute at Ithaca College. In addition to his conducting and public school teaching, John enjoys an active schedule as a professional cellist and private teacher. He performs with the Dorian String Quartet and was a founding member of The Greater Newburgh Symphony Orchestra. John has been the Musical Director for the North Rockland High School Spring Musical for 22 years, the most recent productions being "Cats" and "West Side Story". John is honored to be conducting the 2014 OCMEA Junior High All-County Orchestra in his home county where he resides with his family. He would like to thank Angelo Marcialis and the OCMEA officers for this opportunity.

OCMEA JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL BAND CONDUCTOR

Jennifer Santacroce is completing her 15th year as a music educator. Ms. Santacroce graduated from SUNY Fredonia in 1998 where she earned a bachelors degree in music education; specializing in instrumental music on her applied instrument; trumpet. She earned a masters degree in music education from Western Connecticut State University in 2003. This summer, Ms. Santacroce will attend SUNY New Paltz pursuing a second master's degree in music therapy. After graduation from SUNY Fredonia, she started her career in the Newburgh Enlarged City School District where she conducted band and orchestra for grades 4-6. The ensembles under her direction while in Newburgh participated at NYSSMA Majors and NYSSMA Solo festivals annually; continuously receiving excellent and outstanding adjudications. From 2003-2013, Ms. Santacroce had the opportunity to teach in the Valley Central School District. During her tenure at Valley Central, she had the chance to teach the elementary, middle and high school levels. The concert bands and jazz bands under her direction at Valley Central would compete annually; always coming home with first place awards in their respective categories as well as many outstanding soloist and sectional awards. Her groups at VC were well known throughout the community as they performed at many community events, celebrations and parades. Today, Ms. Santacroce is the director of bands at Marlboro High School in Ulster County.

Ms. Santacroce is an active professional musician in the Hudson Valley. She plays trumpet with the New York Wind Symphony and in the summer of 2012, traveled with the symphony to France to participate in an international music festival in La Croix Valmer. Ms. Santacroce keeps busy with her professional playing career on trumpet as well as bass guitar for various musical projects in the Hudson Valley.

Jennifer, being a former teacher in Orange County, is humbled and honored that her former colleagues would give her the honor of conducting this year's Junior High All-County Band.
