Twelve Reasons to Support Arts Education

1. The arts develop higher-order thinking skills.
2. The arts can increase cooperation, tolerance of diverse values and viewpoints, and understanding of cultures past and present.
3. The arts enhance the learning environment.
4. The arts integrate basic neurological functions and aid student learning in other subject areas.
5. The arts improve self-esteem.
6. The arts engage a variety of learning styles and offer all children avenues for academic success, including children with disabilities and limited English proficiency.
7. The arts engage students' creativity and increase creative thinking and problem-solving abilities.
8. The arts access a variety of human intelligences.
9. The arts develop skills that prepare students for the work force.
10. The arts contribute to tourism.
11. The arts assist in developing public images in the corporate world.
12. The arts in the schools and community can attract new businesses to the area.

WHY TEACH MUSIC IN OUR SCHOOLS?

MUSIC IS...

... a science, mathematical, a foreign language, history, physical education, language arts, business, and technology.

MUSIC IS TAUGHT IN SCHOOLS...

... not because one is expected to major in music, not because one is expected to perform all through life, not so one can relax, and not so one can have fun, but: So one will be human, so one will recognize beauty, so one will be sensitive, so one will be closer to an infinite beyond this world, so one will have more love, more compassion, more gentleness, more good, in short: MORE LIFE.

OF WHAT VALUE WILL IT BE TO MAKE A PROSPEROUS LIVING UNLESS YOU KNOW HOW TO LIVE?

OCMEA ELEMENTARY ORCHESTRA CONDUCTOR

Emily Schaad is co-founder and artistic director of Stringendo, a non-profit community orchestra school in Poughkeepsie, NY. The school boasts six string orchestras, four performing fiddle groups and a summer music camp, and was opened in the fall of 2001. Ms. Schaad conducts two fiddle groups, including the Strawberry Hill Fiddlers, as part of the program.

Schaad studied viola at the Juilliard School and Curtis Institute of Music and participated in numerous music festivals including Tanglewood Music Center, the Verbier Festival in Switzerland, and American Russian Youth Orchestra. After college, she joined the music education field and concurrently began exploring traditional music. Ms. Schaad has taught strings in the Arlington, Hyde Park, and Liberty School Districts and has maintained a private teaching studio for twelve years. She plays southern American music fiddle and banjo and in 2008 earned an MA in Appalachian studies from Appalachian State University in Boone NC. She is currently working toward a doctorate in music education at Boston University. In the summer of 2013, Ms. Schaad released an album with Americana band Old Buck.
